Visit period: April 12-25, 2008

Activities: Work with colleagues from SAA on developing educational materials for a course on International Business and Finance

From 12th to 25th of april, as scheduled within TEMPUS project, Assistant Professor Marko Malovic, PhD visited SAA of the University of Turin. The purpose of his stay has been syllabus development, selection of references and case studies as well as creation of lecture notes for the compulsory (core) graduate course in International Business and Finance, to be taught in autumn semester by Prof. Giuseppe Dutto, PhD and Prof. Malovic.

Professors Dutto in the class

In addition, tight and fruitful cooperation with Prof. Dutto has been achieved also in terms of alternative didactical approaches legitimate and useful in teaching on executive MBA-level. Prof. Malovic had ample opportunity to exchange professional opinions with his Italian colleagues, Prof. Cantino and Prof. Elia among others.

Professors Dutto and Malevic

During his academic visit to SAA of the University of Turin, Dr. Malovic had extensive electronic and physical libraries of books, scientific papers and case studies at disposal. Extreme competence and considerable dedication of Ms Simonetta Cozzi is kindly acknowledged.
